Documents 1, 4 & 6-15 are in the English language. The relevancy of the Non-English documents is explained below.

Document 2

Applicants are not aware of any English language document equivalent to or in the Patent Family of Document 2. An English language Abstract is attached below.

The document discloses the device, which can be fitted on-board a road vehicle, makes it possible to monitor the position of the vehicle with respect to the road markings. It comprises a camera (10) supplying an image of the road in front of the vehicle; a programmed computer (24-28) having image-processing means making it possible to reconstruct the image in three-dimensions, taking account of perspective and by applying probability criteria, making it possible to identify the road markings; and display or alarm means in the case of an abnormal position of the vehicle with respect to the road markings.

Document 3

The relevancy of Document 3 can be seen in Document 15, which is an English language equivalent or Patent Family Member of Document 3.

Document 5

Applicants are not aware of any English language document equivalent to or in the Patent Family of Document 5. An English language abstract is attached below.

The document discloses the display arrangement comprises a device for projecting at least one virtual image in front of a windshield of the motor vehicle, i.e. head-up display, whereby a position of the virtual image (1',2') in front of the windshield (20) is changeable, preferably over the entire windshield, in dependence to at least one drive condition parameter, e.g. a steering wheel angle, the speed of the vehicle, or an acceleration. An Independent claim is provided for a display arrangement according to the invention, which is coupled with a navigation system, preferably with a GPS receiver.

The present Information Disclosure Statement is being filed after three months from the application's filing date but before the mailing date of the first Office Action on the merits, therefore no Certification Under 37 C.F.R. §1.97(e) or fee under 37 C.F.R. §1.17(p) is required.

The submission of the listed documents is not intended as an admission that any such document constitutes prior art against the claims of the present application. Applicant does not waive any right to take any action that would be appropriate
